

Cut out these pictures

Harold Helps

Read the story with a parent or family member and complete it by covering each empty circle with one of your pictures.

It was playtime at school.

had finished his healthy and was playing with his friends Jocko and Brenda.

Harold could feel his beating really quickly because he had been running very fast. They were having lots of fun when

Sam came along. "Can I play?" he said. "No, you can't! Go away" shouted Jocko. Sam started to and began to walk away. "Hold on Sam, don't go. I really want you to play with us" said Harold. "Jocko, it isn't kind to leave people out. How would you feel if we left you out?" Jocko had a and then said

"I'm really sorry Sam. Let's all play together. You choose which we play now." The friends had a brilliant time playing together until the teacher blew the

P
Parent or family member Draw your child's attention to the fact that Harold helped his friend Sam. Talk about why it's not nice to leave people out and how we can help our friends if this happens to them.