

Make a Happy / Sad / Happy Puppet

You will need:
An old cereal packet
Sellotape
A gluestick
Crayons or felt tips
Safety scissors

1. Colour the faces, carefully cut them out.
2. Cut the front from the cereal packet.
3. Stick the faces onto the cereal packet card and cut them out again.
4. Cut the sides from the cereal packet. Glue them back to back to make a strong flat rod.
5. Glue the faces back to back with the card rod in between.

Ask me why I'm happy

Talk to the sad puppet. Find out why the puppet is sad.

Can you tell the puppet something to make it feel happy again? Twist the puppet round and there is your happy puppet.

Let someone in your family talk to your puppet. You can make your puppet talk with a special voice.

Give your puppet a name.
